

24 Towngate West, Market Deeping, Cambs, PE6 8DG

This detached four bedroom stone house converted from two cottages offers ample living space with 3 reception rooms and some original features.

The front door opens into a good size kitchen with small island, range cooker, plumbing for washing machine and dishwasher, and tall fridge available if required. The conservatory, with wood burner, offers access to the large rear garden with shed workshop.

A central hallway with WC leads into a large rear dining room with patio doors out into the garden, and living room with wood burner, stone wall and beams to the front of the house.

Upstairs the four good sized bedrooms have all been redecorated in neutral colours, the large main bedroom with an en-suite shower room, and the bathroom offers a bath with shower attachment, and storage.

The property is centrally heated throughout with a combi boiler and benefits from the two wood burners for additional heating.

The good size garden has access from the side and rear, with mature trees, a central pond, and work -shed.

Parking is to the rear of the house accessed via the side road. Please note the garage is not included.
